- About a 1 metre gap between the performers and the audience.
- Insurance for Band members against personal injury and equipment loss in accordance with statutory requirements
- Payment in cash or cheque upon completion of the performance (or by alternative methods mutually agreed)

Contractual Obligations:

- We will give you a written quotation for our fees for the event based on the information as provided by you in this form.
- When you contract with Sydney's Snake Gully Bush Band to play at your event we will send you a Booking Contract. A sample completed Booking Contract can be downloaded from our web site. If there is any change to the details of the event it will be a requirement that you notify the Band two weeks prior to the event. This may require an update to the quoted fee.
- If, after booking the event, you decide to cancel, the following penalties may be imposed:
 - Cancellation more than 30 days prior to the event– no penalty
 - Cancellation within 15 - 29 days of the event– payment of half the agreed fee
 - Cancellation within 0-14 days of the event– payment of the full booking fee.

Tax: (even Bush Bands have to talk about it)

- Sydney's Snake Gully Bush Band will issue an invoice for the performance.
- You will NOT be charged GST.
- You will not be obligated to withhold tax from the fee. We will provide the required ATO exemption form.

We hope that you will book your event with the Snake Gully Bush Band.
